There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

DR. JENKINS TO BE PASTOR.

Accepts the Call of the Hopkinsville Baptist Church.

GENERAL REJOICING.

Has Few Equals in the Entire South as Preacher and Pastor.

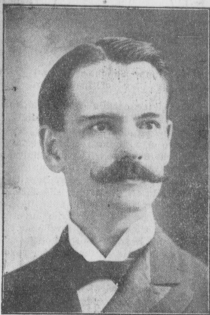

Dr. Millard A. Jenkins has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Baptist church.

His acceptance came Saturday morning in a telegram to Mr. J. H. Anderson, which read as follows:

DUBLIN, GA., OCT. 27.

MR. J. H. ANDERSON: "RUTH 1:16. GOD BLESS THE UNION. LETTER FOLLOWS. MILLARD A. JENKINS."

Dr. Jenkins was called by the unanimous vote of the church on Sept. 5, and his acceptance has been in doubt up to the time he ended the suspense. On the last Sunday in September Dr. Jenkins visited the church and preached several times and the entire membership was more than pleased with him as a man and preacher. His acceptance was delayed by other calls, that proved very perplexing. One was in Baltimore, one in Roanoke, Va., and there were two or three elsewhere. The local church put forth a united and most determined effort, and their success in securing the much-sought-after pastor causes universal delight.

Dr. Jenkins is widower without children, is about 35 years of age and was pastor of a church at Dublin, Ga.

The new pastor possesses unusual graces and gifts as a pulpit orator and has had much experience as a successful evangelist.

He is the fourth pastor the church has had in nearly half a century. Rev. T. G. Keen, D. D., was pastor for more than 20 years prior to 1887. Rev. J. N. Prestidge, D. D., was pastor from 1887 to 1890 and Rev. Chas. H. Nash, D. D., filled the pulpit from June, 1890, to Sept. 1, 1906.

The church has a stone house of worship, worth $40,000, and a membership of between 600 and 700. The salary is $2,500.

In his letter Dr. Jenkins writes that he is engaged this week in a meeting at Macon and cannot come here and it may be not until the third Sunday. He will begin a revival meeting here immediately on his arrival.

Rev. R. L. Baker.

Rev. R. L. Baker, the popular young pastor of Salem church, preached at the Baptist church Sunday night. It was his first appearance before a Hopkinsville congregation and favorable comment on his sermon was general. Dr. Baker was formerly an evangelist in the mountains.

CLARLES FINCH

Taken to the Pen, Along With Porter Dabney.

Sheriff Smith, on Sunday, took Porter Dabney and Charles Finch, negroes, to the branch penitentiary at Eddyville. Dabney was convicted at the recent term of court of obtaining money under false pretenses and given one year. Finch is one of the eight negroes convicted of complicity in the murder of an unknown white man near Pembroke nearly three years ago. At his first trial he was given the death penalty. He obtained a new hearing and at the second trial he was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment. He appealed and the appellate court affirmed the judgment.

Of the nine negroes arrested, charged with the crime, seven were given life sentences, one, George Holland, was hanged July 7, 1905, and the ninth man, Ed Moseley, when turned State's evidence, was turned loose.

COURT ADJOURNS.

Fall Term Came to a Close Saturday Morning.

The Fall term of Circuit court came to a close Saturday morning, after a session of five weeks. A number of cases were continued until the spring term. Equity cases consumed the last few days of the term.

In the case of Mrs. Fannie Hille against the Hopkinsville Sewerage Co., in which plaintiff recovered judgment for $160, defendant's motion for a new trial was overruled.

A new trial of the case in which J. E. Mabry was awarded a judgment against the city of Hopkinsville for $280 for alleged damage by overflow, was refused, and the city will take an appeal.

Miss Ella Rickman was sworn in as an examiner in and for Christian county. Miss Rickman will office with C. O. Prowse in his law office.

THE POPE AND SPAIN

TROUBLE SAID TO BE BREWING BETWEEN THE TWO.

Unless Reduction in Clerical Budget Is Obtained from Vatican Rupture Is Likely to Take Place.

The struggle which the Vatican has been carrying on with France has resulted in many of the exiled orders taking refuge in Spain and this has created a condition of affairs there that has brought the question of the relations of the Vatican to the church in Spain to a climax, so that there seems to be no doubt that, unless the present government of Spain can succeed in inducing the Vatican to accept a reduction of some $200,000 in the clerical budget and acknowledge the regularity of the civil marriage, a rupture will take place between Madrid and Rome which may even lead to the denunciation of the Concordat of 1851. In the meantime, the cardinal primate of Spain, Mgr. Sancha, archbishop of Toledo, is doing his best to effect an agreement by reminding the government of the obligations for moral support both monarchy and dynasty are under, and seeking to impress upon the Roman curia the necessity of making certain concessions toward the liberal movement in Spain.

Monsignor Sancha, Cardinal Primate of Spain.

The problem to be solved is really more of a financial and a social than a religious one. The financial side is aggravated from three sources. The money which the government pays outright to the clergy, the expense to the country at large of the thousands of monks and friars who have established themselves after being driven out of France, and founded schools and colleges for boys and girls, and the immense amount of treasure which the Vatican annually takes out of the country—however high may be the exchange from paper money into gold, in gold the Vatican is paid, and the tithes which it gathers from all sources in Spain are said to represent annually some $3,000,000.

The state spends annually for the church some 41,000,000 pesetas, or $8,200,000. According to the latest statistics, the total number of religious communities throughout the country is 3,115, containing 59,333 members. Of these, 2,586 communities are for women, with 40,188 members, and 529 for men, with 18,145 members. The number of those which sought and obtained registration by the government was 2,611, the registration being of a permanent and definite character in the case of 1,201, and of a provisional kind for 1,410. Registration was temporarily withheld in the case of 150, pending further examination of their titles and description. Of the 254 which remain, the greater part are orders of the Concordat and exempt from registration.

Of the 41,000,000 pesetas paid by the state to the church, about $6,000,000 is devoted to the payment of income; $750,000 to building, maintenance, and repair of churches; $215,000 is devoted for religious seminaries; and some $25,000 is allotted to religious congregations, cloistered nuns, and others. The sum of a little over $1,000,000 is divided among the higher clergy, leaving less than $1,000,000 for the ordinary priesthood. As the latter must number considerably over 20,000, the average income of the secular priest cannot be more than $50.

Nor does there seem to be much more margin for economy in the salaries paid to the superior clergy. There are nine archbishops, whose incomes range from $8,000 to $5,500; there are 51 bishops who receive from $5,500 to $2,000; there are 50 deans and 500 canons, whose average yearly income is less than $1,500. But even out of this poverty the Spanish church contrived to donate to the government last year $750,000. Meanwhile, the native orders and their French guests barely make a living; the village curate starves; the towers of Spanish Cathedral crumble and fall for the want of timely repairs; and the country, which has so long regarded such matters with indifference, is beginning, especially the liberal, progressive part of it, to be disgusted with the whole question of religious dominance.

Quite Important Side Issue.
The British government gets an income of $25,000,000 from the railways, river boats and forests of India.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

An Interesting History of One of the Most Popular Household Remedies.

USED IN THE EARLY AGES.

From the dim dawn of antiquity, the peoples of the earth have utilized the twigs and leaves of the camphor tree as a potent factor in relieving and healing the many ills which the human flesh is heir to. In the early stages of civilization the heathens used camphor in a crude form, and through centuries that have passed it has come down to succeeding ages, a potent and hereditary. The natives of the far east anointed their bodies with this product as one of the first and most simple remedies. From time to time camphor has been combined with other chemical compounds and used for the treatment of both external and internal ailments, though its chief virtue is as an external preparation.

KNOWN TO OUR GRANDMOTHERS.

The simplest form, and that best known to all of us—that familiar friend and companion of our childhood, with which our grandmothers so affectionately caressed our pains and aches, is whiskey and camphor. The old camphor bottle revives in our fancy the happiest recollection of our childhood's home, when care was an undiscovered country and the world was a vast playground created for our own amusement.

DEVELOPED BY A SCOTCH PHYSICIAN.

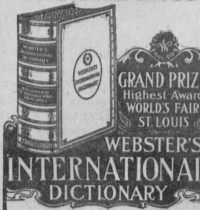

It remained however, for a distinguished Scotch physician and chemist to develop the most effective medicinal combination, with camphor as a basis. While acting as Pathologist of the Royal Infirmary and stationed in the Indies, in the year 1876, this chemist had occasion to investigate, from a scientific viewpoint, the effect of a solution of kerosene steeped in sandal-wood twigs used by the natives of that country to counteract the ravages of a plague. When he returned to the city of Glasgow, Scotland, and while connected with the Andersonian College and the Royal Infirmary of Physicians of that city, he engaged in an extensive series of experiments along the line of the secret solution used by these natives.

PERFECTED IN THE UNITED STATES.

After years of toil, pursued in many countries and many climes, in the year 1892, when a citizen and resident of the United States of America, he perfected a solution of camphor and essential oils which he called PARACAMPH, and which is a revolution in the treatment of external injuries. Thus has the wisdom of the East combined with the progressiveness and activity of the West, giving to the world its greatest healing remedy.

We do not hesitate to guarantee Paracamp to cure Rheumatism, Swelling, Neuralgia, Catarrh, Throat Troubles, Eczema, Tetter and Itching or Bleeding Piles, because many of our customers report to us daily that they have been cured by its use and because we know Paracamp will do exactly what we claim for it. Paracamp is a clean, safe, household remedy which every family needs every day in the year. It is truly a First Aid to the Injured and if you have not used it try Paracamp to-day on our guarantee to return money if it fails to do what we claim for it. Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased part of the ear.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is cured by an inflamed condition of the mucous-lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

BECKHAM

REPLIES.

To Watterson—Had Long Expected Attack Made by Courier-Journal.

EDITOR IS EMBITTERED.

Says He Was Requested to Give Watterson Nomination for Governorship.

Governor Beckham has made the following statement in reply to an attack made upon him by Mr. Watterson in the Courier-Journal:

"In the campaign of slander and abuse being made against me I was not surprised to see the vicious and venomous editorial in the Courier-Journal of October 25, written by Mr. Watterson, the editor of the paper. In fact, over a month ago I predicted to my friends that he would make such an attack in the closing days of the campaign. He not only looks after the editorial page of his paper, but in general superintends the editing of its news columns.

"Whenever he has it in for any man or candidate he passes the word down the line for his force to go after that man who happens to be the object of his displeasure. For several days, in such a way, I have been the victim of his displeasure for reasons well known to him as well as to myself.

"While I have always been an admirer of his brilliant rhetorical talents, I have never since I came into public life, been enamored of his sincerity or integrity as a political leader.

"I have not been as responsive to his advice or ambitions as he thinks I should have been. Borrowing his own phraseology in his telegram of ten years ago, I might say that I, too, do not believe 'in any compromise with dishonor.' His attack, therefore, at this time, was not unexpected, for the news columns of his paper have foreshadowed it for some weeks.

"In every way possible he has used the columns of his paper to belittle my candidacy and to exaggerate that of my opponent. His virulent anger at me has allowed him to make his paper the most personal organ of any in the State.

BASED ON CORRESPONDENT'S STORY.

"While I may be unfortunate somewhat in being the object of his dislike, I am nevertheless inclined to believe that such a condition is not altogether to my dislike. In this editorial he takes as a text an alleged statement of mine about his paper in a recent speech. That speech was not taken in shorthand, and consequently he has attributed to me the words of his own correspondent as if they were the words I had used.
I did, in that speech, refer to the fact that his paper was doing everything it could to advance the interest of my opponent, and to color everything against me.

"The vindictive spirit of this editorial clearly shows that he makes confession of the charge. The public generally might not be interested in knowing the cause of his grievances against me, except for the fact that he is the head of the largest newspaper in the State, and I am a candidate for the United States Senatorship.

"On that account, therefore, and because of the hostile attitude of his paper towards me, it seems that these causes might prove interesting to many. He has two special grievances against me for which he has never forgiven me.

"Before my last nomination for Governor Mr. Watterson was an eager and anxious candidate for that nomination. He made numerous active attempts to secure it, and there are too many who know it for him to deny it. He desired me to stand aside and support him for that office. On different occasions two of his representatives and friends discussed it with me with a purpose of having me stand aside in his favor.

DECLINED TO STAND ASIDE.

"I declined to do so, and on one occasion told one of them that while I had a kindly regard for Mr. Watterson, he hadn't a possible chance to win the nomination, and even if I should decline to run and support him he could not carry a county in the State, for the Democrats of the State would be overwhelmingly against him.

"It is useless for him to attempt to deny this, because he told of his ambition to too many people. He has believed all along that I stood in the pathway of his ambition to be Governor, and has been unable to conceal his animosity.

"The second cause of his ill will happened two years ago last winter, when the General Assembly of Kentucky, by unanimous vote, invited W. J. Bryan to deliver an address in Frankfort. This was in the month of February. On two different days just before Mr. Bryan came to Frankfort, Mr. Watterson wrote leading editorials, viciously attacking the distinguished Nebraskan in a way that was scurrilous and abusive, equal in their bitterness to the many things said about Mr. Bryan in the campaign of 1896.

ATTACK ON MR. BRYAN.

"He even went so far as to attack the personal integrity and private character of Mr. Bryan, and I believe that Mr. Watterson enjoys the distinction of being the only man who ever made such an attack on our party's leader.

"I was invited to introduce Mr.
Bryan, and in doing so said this: 'It is both my privilege and a pleasure to introduce to you the foremost citizen of a nation; a man who though twice defeated for the Presidency, stands today closer to the great public heart than any living advocate of the rights of the people, and I voice the sentiment of Kentucky Democracy and Kentucky manhood when I repudiate and denounce action of the editor of the leading daily paper of the State, in making the visit of this distinguished citizen an occasion to offer him a gratuitous insult.'

OPPOSED SUNDAY CLOSING.

"From that time on the editor of the Courier-Journal, both on his editorial page and in his news columns, has lost no opportunity to show his increased resentment toward me for those words. He opposed me in the steps I took in regard to the enforcement of the Sunday closing law in the city of Louisville, and it has only been a few weeks ago that he wrote an editorial in his paper justifying the raising of the lid in that city.

He and his paper have thrown cold water in every way possible upon that movement. It is a cowardly fighter who hides behind the impersonal columns of a great daily to give vent to his malice and hatred toward some man. In his senile rage toward me he gave evidence of the decline and decadence of a man that was once great. He may find some revengeful gratification in what he predicts as my defeat on November belief that too many Democrats of

LESS THAN TEN.

Perry Ryan was the youngest War Veteran.

The controversy as to who was the youngest soldier of the Civil War probably has been settled in favor of Perry Ryan, Seattle, Wash. He enlisted as a drummer boy in Company D, Twenty-fourth Iowa Volunteers, on Aug. 22, 1862, at the age of nine years and ten months. After serving nearly a year he was honorably discharged on a surgeon's certificate of disability. The Pension Office has found that his representations are correct. He will receive a tidy sum as back pension.

Science has proven that the moon

November Weather.

The high cold winds from the west Saturday gave us a touch of November. Wraps of all kind were in demand by the ladies, and the man who didn't don his overcoat was wishing all day that he had. Everything had a winter appearance, and the dust on the unsprinkled streets was almost unbearable. Most shade trees were denuded of foliage and blown in every direction by the cy-clonic gales which prevailed from early morning until night.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J.

years ago I had severe hemorrhage of the lungs, and was near death, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures hemorrhages, chronic coughs, settled colds and bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick, druggist.

IN SIXTY-FIRST YEAR.

Death Due to Inflammation of Stomach and Bowels.

Mrs. Ed. H. Price died yesterday morning at her home on South Liberty street, in her 61st year.

The end was not unexpected, as she had been in failing health for several months and confined to her bed for six weeks or more. The immediate cause of her death was inflammation of the stomach and bowels.

Susan J. Phaup and Edward H. Price were married April 12, 1867, and have resided in Hopkinsville most, if not all, of their married life. The deceased was a native of Providence, Tenn., and was a daughter of Mr. Del Phaup. She is survived by her husband and five daughters: Mrs. Lillie Belle Smith and Mrs. Emma Lee Longwell, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Geo. Randle and Mrs. Hayward Richards and Miss Allie May Price, of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Sarah Howard, of Island, and one brother, Mr. James Phaup, of the same place.

Mrs. Price in her youth united with the Baptist church, but after her marriage to Mr. Price became a member of the Christian church to be with her husband. She was patient during her illness and was prepared for the time when she was called up higher. Her whole life was given to the care of her children and doing good for all with whom she came in contact. Her faith was beautiful, and the only sorrow that clouded her last days was the thought of having to leave those who were so dear to her.

Funeral services will take place at the residence at 2 p. m. today. Interment in Hopewell.

DEATH OF MRS. MOSS.

Passes Away at Home of Daughter in Paducah.

LaFayette, Ky., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Ritta Moss, widow of Meek Moss, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dismukes, in Paducah. Mrs. Moss went from this neighborhood to Paducah last Spring to reside with her daughter. She was 77 years old, and a most excellent Christian woman, having been a member of the Methodist church for many years. She leaves many relatives and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

The remains were brought here this afternoon and the interment took place in the Clardy burying ground, services being held at the grave.

Letter from Marie Glader.

Dr. Huber, of this city, has received a letter from Miss Marie Glader, the victim of the Fletcher crowd, who with her father, is living at Lady-smith, Wis. The letter in part is as follows:

"Father and I will never forget what you and the dear people of Russellville have done for us while we had to stay there during the trials. Of course you gave the good people there our thanks, because you promised to do so. Many thanks for it yet. We are glad to hear those soundrels will get the reward of their bad doings, and we will be on hand to attend the occasion if you say the dear old Russellville folks want us to be there. We are in great debt to all the folks down there, and we think it sponging on the good people. I for my part would like to see all the honorable gentlemen of the court again and shake hands, also our other friends, though we are in great debt to all, and think it not right to put them in more expense. We have nothing to spare, but if you come to take us back we'll go to see the dogs hang." —Russellville News.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or tumbler glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold water and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Ringhamton, N. Y. When "Home of Swamp-Root," writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but send the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Ringhamton, N. Y.

the buggy. Dr. Lyon, however, in-Lyon had secured the necessary wit-

—TO-DAY—

Is the Day for Action.

Bring Your Savings to the Commercial

and

Savings Bank.

And we will help you to save and accumulate.
Don't put it off. Come at once.

Advice from the Woodman!

When everything seems up a stump,
And fortune is "agin" you, Don't pine. Spruce up—show the world You've got the timber in you.

Andrew Carnegie, Rockefeller, the Vanderbilts and Russell Sage saved a part of their income and put it away in the bank. When the time came for them to make investments they had something saved up. Money rules the world. Without money you are without friends.
